RE: Catholic & Independent Interschool Cross Country Carnival

Dear Parent / Caregiver,

There have been some adjustments to the timings and procedures for the Catholic & Independent Interschool Cross Country Carnival this week.

The school will host an ANZAC Day memorial service from 8:45am on Friday with the Cross Country event following (scheduled to begin at 10:30am).

The timings and order of events have been altered so please refer to the updated program below.

Please be aware that there will be a large number of visitors to our school for this event so while special considerations will be in place, both parking and amenities will be somewhat limited. There will be a coffee van with drinks and limited food available for adult visitor purchases only. Please refrain from purchasing items for students.

Date: Term 2, Week 1, Friday 22nd April, 2022

Venue: St Pauls LPS, Caboolture. As we are hosting this event, participants are requested to treat it as a normal school day time wise, arriving and departing as per usual.

What to wear: Students to wear St Paul's Representative singlet (provided by the school), school sport shorts, school hat, white shoes to and from the venue and appropriate running shoes (NO metal spikes) for their race is optional (shoes must be worn, no bare feet).

Food and other items: Sufficient amount of water, morning tea, lunch and sunscreen for the day.
